IN THE LOBBIES AND ON THE STREETS.

Mr. M. A. Parker was shipping some very fine grapes by Express this morning, first of the season.

The clerk keeps busy with the Direct Land Tax matter. There is a stream of business callers all day.

Francis Hood, convicted of infanticide at the Spring term of Mecklenburg Superior Court in 1880, has been pardoned by the Governor.

Mr. A. Dughi yesterday received orders from Suffolk, Va., and Asheville for ice cream bonbons. He makes the best known and no wonder he gets orders from a distance.

The State Laws are being distributed. They are now being sent to Superior Court Judges and some other officials, and will be sent out as rapidly as possible.

The Executive Committee of Trinity College met here yesterday and decided upon October 1st as the date for opening the fall session of Trinity College.

A private letter from Rev. Dr. Hall conveys the intelligence that the Raleigh party attending the Society of Christian Endeavor at Minneapolis are having a delightful time. 16,000 people attended the Sunday night meeting.

The Governor's Guards left on the special military train for Wrightsville, yesterday. They are a fine looking body of men and there will be no better company at the incampment. And our people appreciate the company too.

FOLKS WHO TRAVEL.

Judge Womack was here yesterday.

Mr. Jno. B. Burwell came up from Morehead yesterday.

Mr. Robt. C. Strong returned from a trip to Wrightsville yesterday.

We noticed in the city yesterday, N. H. McGhee, of Franklinton, and J. R. Rodwell, Sheriff of Warren.

Mr. Geo. P. Pell, of the CHRONICLE staff, who has been sick for some days, left yesterday for Virginia Beach to recuperate.

Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., was in the city yesterday in attendance upon the meeting of the Executive Committee of Trinity College.

Mr. Tal Murray has returned from an extended trip through the North.

MARRIED.

Rev. J. L. Murphy, pastor of the Reformed Church in Hickory, and Miss Essie Carpenter, daughter of L. A. Carpenter, of Maiden, were married by Rev. J. A. Foil at the bride's home on Wednesday the 8th inst.

Over a Million Dollars on Deposit.

The statements of the National Bank of Raleigh and the Citizens National Bank published in to-day's CHRONICLE, discloses the fact that the two banks have on deposit subject to check $1,011,366.72. Of course this money is not lying idle and most of it has been let out in loans, but the fact of such large deposits is evidence that this is a prosperous business community and people have money.

A Pender Convict Pardoned.

The Governor has pardoned J. R. Bolton, convicted of larceny at the fall term of Pender court and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

One of Wake's Teachers goes to Salisbury.

A friend writes: "Prof. J. H. Smith, who has been teaching for two years past at the Falls of Neuse, has decided to open a private school in Salisbury, N. C., in September. Mr. Smith has made many friends in Wake, and his removal is much regretted. May he sustain the good reputation he has made for himself as a teacher, and his many friends and patrons recommend him to the people of Salisbury, as a gentleman and teacher, worthy of their confidence and patronage."

TRINITY COLLEGE.

Its Doors Will Open in Durham October 1st.

President Jno. F. Crowell was in Raleigh yesterday, and the CHRONICLE was glad to see him. He tells us that Trinity College will open its doors at Durham on the first day of October. Work is progressing rapidly and the main building and the Crowell memorial building will be ready for occupancy at that time. Trinity High School, with Rev. J. F. Heitman head master, will open in the old college building on August 6th.

We are glad to learn that the prospects are very bright for both the high school and the college. Dr. Crowell is a hard worker, is full of faith, and success on a large scale awaits him.

Ruling of the Railroad Commission.

About the first act of the Railroad Commission was to reduce the railroad fare. Some of the railroads then fixed their rates and charged for every fraction of a mile as if it were a full mile. This was reported to the Commission, and yesterday they made a ruling that all railroads shall charge for fractions of a mile the same charge as for a full mile provided the fraction exceeds a mile; but no charge shall be made for any distance under half a mile. This is fair to the people and to the railroads.

The Cars Have Come.

The electric cars have come. There are four of them. Painted on the side of each car is its name. And the names are "Vance," "Jarvis," "Albemarle," and "Swannanoa." The track force is working rapidly. The plant is being built. Raleigh may, in the near future, expect to see the cars whiz by on electric wings. And our people will not be disappointed. It beats walking and it beats the horse cars. Raleigh people will ride and ride fast, too.

Members of State Board of Health.

Gov. Holt has appointed the following members of the State Board of Health for a term of two years: Dr. J. H. Tucker, of Henderson. Prof. F. P. Venable, of Chapel Hill. Mr. J. L. Ludlow, C. E., of Winston.

FOR EDUCATORS.

An Offer to Sell the Famous and Beautiful Bingham School Property.

The famous Bingham School has been moved to Asheville, N. C., for private reasons that can be stated on application. I will therefore dispose of all this desirable school property, famed for its beauty, the healthfulness of its location and its adaptability to military or other school purposes. Situated on the Richmond & Danville system, fifty miles from the State Capital, in the centre of the State. Nearly every one who passed the location remembers it. Barracks, recitation rooms, mess hall, furniture, professors' residences, bath houses, &c., orchards, beautiful lawn, 380 acres of productive land. I have spent over $30,000 improving the place. Will sell at greatly reduced price. Address, Mrs. WM. BINGHAM, Bingham School, N. C.

MCGEE AND MOSELEY

MAKE AN ASSIGNMENT.

They Carried Too Large a Stock and Had Too Many Bad Debts.

THE LIABILITIES ARE ABOUT $30,000.

The Assignment Was Made Because Certain Creditors Were Pushing Them.

"McGee & Mosely have failed." This was the announcement yesterday that surprised many people in Raleigh. It also made many feel sad. The members of the firm have a host of friends who regret that misfortune has overtaken them, and who wish for them future success.

About three years ago, Messrs. CHAS. MCKIMMON, long a member of the firm of Tuckers, and Mr. JAS. A. MOSELEY, head clerk at Tuckers, formed a partnership and opened a store with a large and beautiful stock of goods. They established a large trade and their prospects looked bright. Afterwards Mr. WILL T. MCGEE was admitted as a member of the firm. About a year ago Mr. MCKILMOM withdrew from the firm, and it has since been MCGEE & MOSELEY.

The direct cause of their failure is to be found in the fact that some of their creditors were pressing for settlement, and they were forced to assign to protect their creditors. The primary cause of failure was that they carried too large a stock of goods for their capital and did too large a credit business.

Mr. S. F. Mordecai is the assignee.

Special Notices.

When we Look Around and see the Mighty Changes.

Each day some mercantile ship is wrecked on the hidden rock, of King credit, and these wreck's are finger boards pointing us to the danger of distributing our hard earnings among our friends and spending surplus nights walking the floor thinking of what might have been. We acted wisely and conducted our business on a cash basis. Nothing more pitiable than one of these broken merchants with silver hair and a great big heart covered with a thread bare coat alone and friendless waiting for the messenger of death to relieve him of his burden. Many of these shattered fortunes have been gathered in at the last hour by D. T. Swindell: Why? Because he is ready; steers clear of these land sharks; Swindell is enabled to sell for a smaller price than the concerns who credit, and he has the bullion to plank down when the time comes: Our slaughter sale will continue at the Racket Store and at the Norris' Store 14 days more. D. T. SWINDELL.

Notice of Sale.

As trustees of S. B. Norris and P. A. Carter formerly trading and doing business in the city of Raleigh as Norris & Carter, the undersigned will sell on Monday, the 30th day of July, 1891, at public auction, for cash, at the Court House door of Wake county, all the notes, accounts, choses in action and other evidences of debt belonging to the said Norris & Carter. A list of these notes and accounts may be seen by application to either of the Trustees. Time of sale 12 o'clock m. Terms cash. W. G. UPCHURCH, M. T. NORRIS, Trustees of Norris & Carter.
